Pres Dave began the meeting with the pledge of allegiance.

Jay officially swore in Dave followed by the officers and committee members.

Michael presented Jay with a certificate and pin thanking Jay for the club growth and his hard work and dedication during his time as president.

Michael presented new member packets to those in attendance that had not received their packets yet. Anyone who still needs theirs should let Brianna know.

Dave made a statement about the future of his rotarian journey, the direction of the club, and the expansion of service during the next two years.

All present went around and introduced themselves.

Rodney "Pierre" and Bill from "Generational Experience" introduced themselves and their podcast.

Natalia was introduced by Michael. She spoke about the local organizations to assist Ukraine with the war w/ Russia. She spoke about Ukraines background and how different it is from Russia. She spoke specifically of a rehabilitation hospital in the greater Philadelphia area that soldiers with amputations come to for prosthetics and when these soldiers go back to Ukraine, they bring drones with them. Michael spoke of Rotaract's commitment to this cause.

Meeting adjourned for dinner including traditional Ukrainian dishes.
